Week 1 & 2

Lesson 1

Today I would like you to watch this lovely animated story (click on the link below) with an adult and ask them to read it to you.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2PnnFrPaRgY>

Discuss with your adult what you have seen and heard.

Write a few sentences about the story.

Who are the main characters?

What is the problem?

How do they resolve it?

How did it make you feel?

Lesson 2

Today I would like you to watch this lovely animated story and try to read the story aloud. Don't forget that you can pause the animation to give you more time to read each sentence and the more you read it the better you will get.

Perhaps someone in your family can video you reading part of the story aloud and email it to school using the email address below.

Remember to write who your class teacher is so they can see your fantastic reading.

Lesson 3

Today I would like you to watch the animation carefully.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2PnnFrPaRgY>

Write 2 list sentences, don't forget to use commas, stating what each friend did for the other while they couldn't hug. Here's a little starter..

Harry Hedgehog waved, laughed at tortoise, wrote a letter,

_____, _____, _____ and _____.

Tortoise _____, _____, _____, _____,

_____, _____ and _____.

Lesson 5

Today I would like you to think about what Tortoise and Hedgehog said in their letters to each other.

Did they say positive or negative things?

Today I want you to write a letter to your best friend or family member expressing how much you value their friendship and miss seeing them every-day.

If you would like you can use the printable template.
