

Year Four,

here is everything you need to inspire some fabulous writing this week.

I chose this picture because we are enjoying the class read about dragons so much!

- Take your time.
- Think about your vocabulary use. Is that the best word for the job?
- Punctuate your sentences!
- Make notes on scrap paper if you need to.
- Take care with presentation.

Reading questions:

1. Where are the girl and the dragon?
2. What can they see from this place?
3. What are they looking at?
4. Why are they here?
5. Are they friends? Does the girl own the dragon as a pet? Or does the dragon own the girl as its pet?
6. What species of dragon do you think it is? Is it friendly?
7. Does anyone else know that they're up here?
8. What might other people say about their friendship?
9. Give this picture a title. Explain your choice.

Writing tasks:

- Draw the dragon and write about it– what skills does it have? How is it designed? What can it do? What does it eat?
- Write about the adventures of the girl and the dragon. Use the planning sheet and sentence starters.
