I can punctuate sentences correctly.

Put question marks and full stops at the end of these sentences:

- | | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 Where shall I put your chest
Take it to my cabin | 5 Who's a pretty boy
You are, Mister P |
| 2 When do we set sail
We sail at high tide | 6 What's at the end of this chain
It's either a plug or an anchor |
| 3 What am I pulling this rope for
You are raising the sails | 7 Who made this mess on deck
It was probably Mister P |
| 4 How long do I have to mop the deck for
You will mop the deck until it is spotlessly clean | 8 Why is it called a crow's nest
We should call it a parrot perch |

- 9 Now write a question and answer of your own.

Extension

Write some questions that Captain Starling would ask her crew.

The Captain's Cabin

Captain Starling's cabin was rather small and cramped.
It was also very dusty, but she didn't have time to clean it now.
There were more important things to do!

Red Pirates

Name: _____

I can identify and use adjectives.

Underline the adjectives in these sentences:

- 1 Captain Starling entered the cabin through a small door.
- 2 She had to be careful she didn't bump her head on the low beams.
- 3 There was lots of dark wood inside the captain's cabin.
- 4 At one end of the cabin there were four big windows.
- 5 A creaky bed was in the corner of the cabin.
- 6 In the middle of the cabin was a round table.
- 7 On the table were some old charts and a glass bottle of rum.
- 8 She had a gulp of the red rum, her favourite drink.
- 9 She sat on the wooden chair and took a crumpled map out of her pocket.
- 10 This was no ordinary map! This was a secret treasure map!

Extension

Look at the picture and write some sentences of your own describing the cabin.
