

MA - Inferring emotions

Read the sentences below. Can you use the clues to tell you how the character is feeling and match the sentence to the correct emotion?

Sam blew out the candles with a huge smile on his face. When he had blown them all out, he started to clap his hands whilst grinning.

Shy

Jill heard a loud bang at the door. She ran and hid behind the chair. Her hands started to shake and she could feel her heart beating quickly.

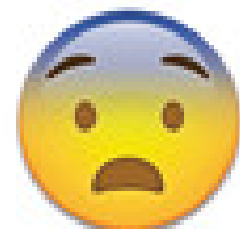

Sad

His bottom lip started to wobble and tears came streaming down his face. He really wanted to go to the party with his friends.

Happy

It was Layla's first day at her new school. She held on to her mum's hand tightly and her cheeks started to go red the teacher introduced her to the class.

Worried

CHALLENGE - How would someone act if they were feeling angry?