Year 3 Narrative Checklist

	Yes	No	Comment
General
The title reflects what will happen in the story.
The story flows well, and raises doubt and suspense.
Language of description is used throughout the text to keep the reader's attention, and to add detail.
Correct usage of past tense.
Dialogue is included correctly using present tense.
Introduction
The main characters are introduced.
Who, what, when, where and why is established.
Complication/Problem
The complication or problem is highlighted.
The complication involved fantastic, unreal elements that would not usually occur in real life.
Series of Events
Events that are triggered are the result of the main problem.
Events that occur are set out and written in chronological order.
The events that occur include fantastic, unreal elements that would not usually occur in real life.
Feelings and emotions responses are made clear through the reactions of the main characters.
A climax is reached relating to the complication or problem.

	Yes	No	Comment
Resolution
The complication or problem has been resolved.
The resolution includes fantastic, unreal elements that would not usually occur in real life.
The series of events is concluded.
Coda
New understandings and new knowledge for the main characters is evident, as a result of what happened in the text.
Morals, and lessons learned are included.
Changes that were made from the beginning to the end of the text are included.			